REMARKS	This is UNEVALUATED

1. Between 0800 and 1130 and between 1300 and 1500 on 26 July 1954, the following observations were made at Deutsch Wagram military post:

Six tents were located in the garden of No 28 Bahnhof Strasse.

2. Antenna masts arranged from south to north just west of Feldhof, which was 2km west of Obersiebenbrunn (4815 N/1643 E), included:

An 8-meter-high mast with a cone-shaped bracing, near a wooden hut;

An 8-meter-high mast with a cone-shaped bracing, near a radio truck;

a 6-meter-high mast with cone-shaped bracing, near a brick building.

An antenna system with a dipole support in the shape of a horizontal cross and with a vertical dipole fitted at each end of the cross was observed approximately in the middle between Obersiebenbrunn and Markgrafneusiedl (4816 N/1638 E), about 800 meters north of the road. An Adcock DF station was located north of the antenna system.²

3. The previously reported radar sets near Parbasdorf (4816 N/1636 E) including a Token-type set with a Fishnet-type set, a Kniforest-type set with a Fishnet-type set, and an umbrella-type antenna, the latter in the military post, were interconnected by telephone lines. The sets were not in operation nor were personnel observed nearby.

1. [REDACTED] Comment. Personnel of Deutsch Wagram airfield are quartered in Deutsch Wagram where also offices are located. No change in the occupation of the individual objects could be observed.
2. [REDACTED] Comment. The observed radio installations belong to Deutsch Wagram airfield. The antenna system with a cross-shaped dipol support probably belongs to a VHF DF station. [REDACTED]
3. [REDACTED] Comment. The radar station near Parbasdorf is known. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
the radar station belongs to the air force. It is assumed that the radar station is assigned to the fighter division headquarters which is believed to be located in Deutsch Wagram.
